THREE DAYS TO GO!!!

If you still haven't filed your return, now is the time with just a few days until the filing deadline of April 15th.

- FREE Federal Electronic Filing --
- FREE State Electronic Filing --

PRIOR YEAR RETURNS? Still need a 2002, 2001, 2000, 1999, 1998... prior year return prepared? It's never too late to file and we can prepare them for you. We are one of the only sites that still do prior year tax returns.

TaxLogic provides a prompt, professional, personal, one-on-one tax preparation from the comfort of your home. We are competitively priced and offer a lot of additional information on our web site - <http://www.taxlogic.com>

The filing deadline is almost here. If you delayed doing your tax return, we can still prepare it for you and get it to you before the filing deadline of April 15, 2004. However, if you just can't get it done beforehand, we are listing all the different types of extensions that must be filed by then, along with any payments that are due. Remember, filing an extension, only relieves you of the failure to file penalty, but it does not relieve you of the late penalty for not paying your taxes. To file an extension, click on the Extension link from the TaxLogic homepage at <http://www.taxlogic.com>
